

Editorial

We are proud of presenting the third issue to the all scholars and researchers. This difficult task wouldn't be done without support of the authors. COVID still beats the world all hollow. Even the heads of the world's superpowers have been caught by it.

This issue of JGSS has many interesting topics from international relations to literature, from environment to history: Transformation of the European Union's Approach to Africa, Affirmative Action and Gender Inequality, Green Marketing as a Marketing Tool, Dissent and Activism during the Gezi Park Protest, Greentree Agreement on Bakassi, Two Different Nevai's and Two Different Influences of this fact, Transition to Independence of Syria, and the Impact of Xenophobic attacks.

Hope to see you in the next issue.

Kemal Ozden, Prof.Dr.

Chief Editor

Nile University of Nigeria